The Learner Profile and Catholic Education

- Principled
 - Students scrutinize knowledge in a critical manner
 - Students examine the relationships between possessing knowledge and the moral obligations their possession carries
- Open-minded
 - Students must learn to balance skepticism with belief
 - Students must learn that in many situations there is a need to make decisions without absolute certainty

IB CONFERENCE
OF THE AMERICAS 2015
Chicago, IL • 23–26 July

The Learner Profile and Catholic Education

- Risk-takers
 - Students must be willing to risk questioning what they hold to be true
 - They must be willing to risk being wrong
 - They should be prepared to take the risks involved in making judgments in matters where the evidence does not definitively favour one view or another
- Reflective
 - Students learn to reflect on the degree to which motivations, beliefs, thought processes and emotional reactions influence what one knows and what one is capable of knowing

Theory of Knowledge in the Catholic School

- TOK Teacher & CAS Coordinator: Ms. Michele Mahlock

Catholic schools are places for “an encounter between faith, reason and sciences.”

A theology ... which is in dialogue with other sciences and human experiences is most important for our discernment...

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium

Theology- “Faith seeking knowledge”

IB CONFERENCE
OF THE AMERICAS 2015
Chicago, IL • 23–26 July

Shared and Personal Knowledge in Scripture

The concepts of shared and personal knowledge spur conversations and knowledge questions ... To what extent does knowing in religious systems create moral obligations? ... Are there situations in which personal knowledge alone is sufficient to claim knowledge? ... To what extent is it possible for shared knowledge to play a role in knowing that is not empirical?

Creativity, Activity, and Service in the Catholic School

The Nature of CAS

- A beacon of IB values, CAS enables students to grow as unique individuals and to recognize their role in relation to others.
- CAS reflection allows students to explore ideas, skills, strengths, limitations and consider how they may use prior learning in new contexts.
- CAS is experiences that provide students with opportunities to explore their interests and express their passions, personalities and perspectives.

Catholic Norbertine Charisms

- Communio
 - characterized by mutual esteem, trust, sincerity, faith, responsibility
 - Lived through open dialogue, communication, consultation, collaboration
- Contemplio is pausing for reflection
- Actio calls us to animate faith with action
