Details of the workshops

Title	The role of physical education in the PYP
Category/Code	3H
The overall purpose of the workshop	To develop the following understandings: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When inquiring into physical education concepts, the teacher and the student share control and initiative over what is learned, how it is learned and how it is assessed • In a balanced programme, students learn, learn about and learn through movement • In the PYP, skills are learned within a context where students can pose problems, solve problems and understand new ideas. • Inquiry models can help planning, learning and assessment in physical education. • Planning, teaching and assessing in physical education should reflect all the essential elements and the IB learner profile • The PYP planner is a tool to facilitate concept driven inquiry • In a transdisciplinary programme students learn and apply subject specific content as a means to understand the world, ourselves and each other (transdisciplinary themes) • For learning/understanding to be maximized, students have to be able to critically reflect on and assess their learning. • All PYP teachers have a role in collaborative planning and building a cohesive educational experience for the learners
Registration criteria	Candidate and authorized schools This workshop is for administrators, coordinators and teachers who <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have been working with the programme for at least two school years • Have previously attended a category 2 PYP workshop (regional or inschool) facilitated by IB PYP workshop leaders organized by or through the regional office • Have an in-depth understanding of the philosophy and curriculum framework of the programme
Materials	What participants should bring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making the PYP happen: a curriculum framework for international primary education (2007) • A completed unit planner on which the participant has collaborated • The school's programme of inquiry • A resource you have used that promotes or supports inquiry based teaching and learning in the area of physical education
