Academic honesty/integrity and the IB learner profile

- IB learners strive to be “principled” (IB learner profile -revised version August 2013):

We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

Understanding academic honesty

The IB upholds principles of academic honesty, which are seen as a set of values and skills that promote personal integrity and good practice in teaching, learning and assessment.

Malpractice vs. Academic misconduct

MALPRACTICE

- The IB Organization defines malpractice as behaviour that results in, or may result in, the candidate or any other candidate gaining an unfair advantage in one or more assessment components.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

- The IB organization defines academic misconduct as behaviour (whether deliberate or inadvertent) that results in, or may result in, the candidate or any other candidate gaining an unfair advantage in one or more components of assessment.

New plagiarism definition

Old text:

- Plagiarism: this is defined as the representation of the ideas or work of another person as the candidate's own.

New text:

- Plagiarism: this is defined as the representation, intentionally or unwittingly, of the ideas, words or work of another person without proper, clear and explicit acknowledgment.

Breaches to IB regulations

- Collusion
- Taking unauthorized material into an examination room
- Stealing examination materials
- Disruptive behaviour during examination
- Disclosure of information about the content of an examination paper within 24 hours after a written examination

Why is it important to promote academic honesty?

- Because lack of academic integrity undermines the philosophy of any educational programme.
- Because intellectual property borders have blurred and students are not clear who owns the information available on the internet.
- Because students engaging in academic misconduct miss the “learning opportunity”.

IB AFRICA, EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014
ROME • 16-19 OCTOBER

Why is it important to promote academic honesty?

- Because those who breach the regulations of academic work will find it easy to contravene the conventions in other fields.
  - Because the threat of any form of penalty is not diminishing the amount of academic misconduct cases.

Why cite

- To show respect for the work of others.
- To give the reader the opportunity to follow up references.
- To help a reader to distinguish between the work of the creator and the work of others.
- To give the reader the opportunity to check the validity of creator's interpretation.
- To receive proper credit for the research process.
- To establish credibility and authority of own knowledge and ideas.

IB AFRICA, EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014
ROME • 16-19 OCTOBER

What to cite

Creators are expected to acknowledge any source materials or ideas which are not their own and have been used in any way such as a quotation, paraphrase, or summary. Written or electronic source materials may include:

- Visual
- Audio
- Graphic
- Lectures
- Interviews
- Broadcasts
- Maps

IB AFRICA, EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014
ROME • 16-19 OCTOBER

When to cite

- Citation is expected in the body of the creator's work where the external source has been used.
- The reader must be able to clearly distinguish between the words/work of the creator and the words/work of others.
- Including the reference ONLY in the bibliography is not enough.

Transparency

IB AFRICA, EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014
ROME • 16-19 OCTOBER

How to cite

- The IB does not prescribe which style(s) of referencing should be used by candidates; this is left to the discretion of the school. The wide range of subjects, multiple response languages and the diversity of referencing styles makes it impractical and restrictive to insist on particular styles.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014

Final remarks

- All community members of IB World Schools must understand their shared responsibility in upholding academic honesty and must openly discuss this topic and share “good practice”.
- IB students must not follow the ‘easy way out’ and engage in academic misconduct to circumvent the work involved in learning. But they need support from their teachers.

IB AFRICA, EUROPE & MIDDLE EAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE 2014
ROME • 16-19 OCTOBER

Final remarks

- The majority of students do not intend to plagiarize.
- Most students realize that citing the sources increases their credibility.
- Speak regularly with students about this topic; it will serve as reminder and it will develop into a work habit.
- Discuss the consequences of poor scholarship or academic dishonesty in the future.
- Shift the emphasis towards the skills developed while writing, rather than the final product.

The principle of academic honesty should be viewed positively by students and become a natural part of their academic study. This is not a study skill that is confined to the completion of the IB Diploma Programme; it should remain with IB students throughout higher education and beyond.
