

A photograph of three teachers, two women and one man, walking down a wide staircase in a modern building with large glass windows. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The woman on the left is wearing a blue and white striped shirt and tan trousers, carrying a brown shoulder bag. The woman in the middle is wearing a red blazer over a white shirt and a brown tiered skirt. The man on the right is wearing a green polo shirt and dark trousers, holding a white coffee cup. All three are wearing blue lanyards with ID badges.

Everything you need to support teachers and transform schools.

With flexible learning options to suit different institutions, it's easy to deliver standardized professional development that upskills teachers and uplifts schools. We consult with you to understand your objectives and help you get started, bringing you the transparency to see clear impacts on school outcomes.

Attract and retain teachers

Attract, satisfy and upskill teachers with a professional development approach that demonstrates clear investment in their careers. Reduce attrition through engaging learning options that respect busy schedules, support wellbeing and boost career fulfillment. Provide crucial support to newer teachers with communities of practice and coaching.

Compete internationally

With world-class continuous learning, your education system can take its place as a leader on the world stage. Build best-in-class teachers who can help your students gain globally recognized competencies, while developing international mindedness throughout your education system.

Enjoy cost-effective service

We offer an approach to suit any objectives or budget. We'll work with you to understand systemic needs, so you can deliver all-year-round professional development with value for money.

Develop teachers for the future

All our professional development options are mapped to the core skills and competencies teachers need to thrive today and tomorrow. We regularly update our content to provide learning on the latest topics, such as student wellbeing and AI in the classroom.

Lift outcomes

When it comes to education transformation, the IB brings you decades of global success. Our standardized approach brings you powerful transparency, and options for teachers to earn accreditations, so you can see how your schools are improving and establish a global reputation for excellence.

Investing in training teachers is wholly supported, to make education better and make an impact on the world. The IB is renowned worldwide for excellence, and dedicated to ensuring the highest standards of every programme through the IB community collaboration and a programme of continual improvement. This can be transformational for schools.

Amsterdam International Community School

A better model for professional development.

Drawing on our worldwide success in high-quality workshops, we have developed a comprehensive professional development approach that empowers teachers to direct their own learning and career success.

Empower your educators

Teachers will appreciate the agency to define their own learning and career trajectories.

Build capabilities and practices

Teachers can learn IB capabilities that help improve student outcomes, or develop their professional skills through learning IB practices.

Provide diverse learning options

Teachers can choose from bite-sized microcontent and microlearning modules to self-paced courses, workshops, and tailored coaching.

Offer recognition

You can give teachers the option to earn evidence-based micro-credentials, which makes it easier to see the real impact of your IB Professional Development investment.

Schools with multiple IB Educator Network teachers enjoy improved teaching and learning outcomes.
