The IB Diploma Programme (DP) is a rigorous, academically challenging and balanced programme of education designed to prepare students aged 16 to 19 for success at university and life beyond. The DP aims to encourage students to be knowledgeable, inquiring, caring and compassionate, and to develop intercultural understanding, open-mindedness and the attitudes necessary to respect and evaluate a range of viewpoints. Approaches to teaching and learning (ATL) within the DP are deliberate strategies, skills and attitudes that permeate the teaching and learning environment. In the DP students develop skills from five ATL categories: thinking, research, social, self-management and communication.

To ensure both breadth and depth of knowledge and understanding, students must choose at least one subject from five groups: 1) their best language, 2) additional language(s), 3) social sciences, 4) experimental sciences, and 5) mathematics. Students may choose either an arts subject from group 6, or a second subject from groups 1 to 5. At least three and not more than four subjects are taken at higher level (240 recommended teaching hours), while the remaining are taken at standard level (150 recommended teaching hours). In addition, three core elements—the extended essay, theory of knowledge and creativity, action, service—are compulsory and central to the philosophy of the programme.

These IB DP subject briefs illustrate three key course components.

III. Assessment model

I. Course description and aims
The IB Diploma Programme visual arts course encourages students to challenge their own creative and cultural expectations and boundaries. It is a thought-provoking course in which students develop analytical skills in problem-solving and divergent thinking, while working towards technical proficiency and confidence as art-makers. In addition to exploring and comparing visual arts from different perspectives and in different contexts, students are expected to engage in, experiment with and critically reflect upon a wide range of contemporary practices and media. The course is designed for students who want to go on to study visual arts in higher education as well as for those who are seeking lifelong enrichment through visual arts.

The role of visual arts teachers should be to actively and carefully organize learning experiences for the students, directing their study to enable them to reach their potential and satisfy the demands of the course. Students should be empowered to become autonomous, informed and skilled visual artists.

The aims of the arts subjects are to enable students to:
1. enjoy lifelong engagement with the arts
2. become informed, reflective and critical practitioners in the arts
3. understand the dynamic and changing nature of the arts
4. explore and value the diversity of the arts across time, place and cultures
5. express ideas with confidence and competence
6. develop perceptual and analytical skills.

In addition, the aims of the visual arts course at SL and HL are to enable students to:
7. make artwork that is influenced by personal and cultural contexts
8. become informed and critical observers and makers of visual culture and media
9. develop skills, techniques and processes in order to communicate concepts and ideas.

- Examine and compare the work of artists from different cultural contexts.
- Consider the contexts influencing their own work and the work of others.
- Make art through a process of investigation, thinking critically and experimenting with techniques.
- Apply identified techniques to their own developing work.
- Develop an informed response to work and exhibitions they have seen and experienced.
- Begin to formulate personal intentions for creating and displaying their own artworks.
Throughout the course students are required to maintain a visual arts journal. Although sections of the journal will be selected, adapted and presented for assessment, the journal itself is not directly assessed or moderated. It is, however, regarded as a fundamental activity of the course.

III. Assessment model
Having followed the visual arts course, students are expected to:
1. Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of specified content
   • Identify various contexts in which the visual arts can be created and presented
   • Describe artwork from differing contexts, and identify the ideas, conventions and techniques employed by the art-makers
   • Recognize the skills, techniques, media, forms and processes associated with the visual arts
   • Present work, using appropriate visual arts language, as appropriate to intentions
2. Demonstrate application and analysis of knowledge and understanding
   • Express concepts, ideas and meaning through visual communication
   • Analyse artworks from a variety of different contexts
   • Apply knowledge and understanding of skills, techniques, media, forms and processes related to art-making
3. Demonstrate synthesis and evaluation
   • Critically analyse and discuss artworks created by themselves and others and articulate an informed personal response
   • Formulate personal intentions for the planning, development and making of artworks that consider how meaning can be conveyed to an audience
   • Demonstrate the use of critical reflection to highlight success and failure in order to progress work
   • Evaluate how and why art-making evolves and justify the choices made in their own visual practice
4. Select, use and apply a variety of appropriate skills and techniques
   • Experiment with different media, materials and techniques in art-making
   • Make appropriate choices in the selection of images, media, materials and techniques in art-making
   • Demonstrate technical proficiency in the use and application of skills, techniques, media, images, forms and processes
   • Produce a body of resolved and unresolved artworks as appropriate to intentions
